

Iona Fruit Farm is a family-owned farm based in Lusk, County Dublin. They are known for their production of baby vegetables, cooking apples, berries, courgette flowers, and fresh Irish Rhubarb. They are the main producers of baby vegetables in Ireland. Most of their production takes place in the greenhouses located at the farm. The fresh produce is freshly handpicked before packing. This is done to ensure the highest of quality.

