

Indulge in Nature's Finest Bounty, Straight from Iona Fruit Farm!

Nestled in the idyllic surroundings of Lusk, County Dublin, Iona Fruit Farm is a cherished family-owned farm dedicated to cultivating an array of exquisite produce. Immerse yourself in the flavours of nature with our hand-picked selection of baby vegetables, cooking apples, courgette flowers, heritage carrots and Beetroot. Prepare to embark on a culinary journey like no other!

Baby Vegetables: A World of Flavor, Perfectly Petite

Discover a whole new world of taste and elegance with our exceptional baby vegetables. As the leading producers of baby vegetables in Ireland, we take great pride in cultivating these tender, bite-sized delights. Bursting with flavour and boasting vibrant colours our baby vegetables are the epitome of culinary excellence. Harvested at the peak of their ripeness and meticulously handpicked, they guarantee unparalleled freshness and quality in every dish.

Cooking Apples: The Essence of Traditional Goodness

Unlock the essence of traditional recipes with our premium cooking apples. Grown with love and care, our apples are handpicked at their prime to ensure exceptional taste and texture. Whether you're creating mouthwatering pies, heart sauces, or delectable desserts, our cooking apples will elevate your culinary creation to new heights.

Courgette Flowers: A Taste of Elegance

Add a touch of sophistication to your dishes with our delicate courgette flowers. These edible blossoms not only bring visual charm but also offer a subtle, exquisite flavour. Handpicked with precision, our courgette flowers are a chef's dream, elevating both the taste and presentation of any culinary creation.

